What Made It Possible

"Talent-Centered" Principles to Establish Sustainable Creative Platform

What Made It Possible

Best-in-Class Mobile Game Development Capabilities, Amid Heavy Reliance on Chinese Developers for most AAA Games in Mobile Transition

Graphic Rendering

Global Illumination: Lighting effect for realistic graphics beyond limitation on mobile devices

Auto-Instancing Draw: Drawing hundred-thousand objects in a massive open-world map at high speed

Auto Exposure: Implementing human eyes' adaptation to darkness

Grand Atlas Texturing: Caching optimized for mobile devices for max. efficiency in processing

Platform Server

Development / Operation of Cloud platform Server Systems: Covering tens of millions of DAUs worldwide

Implementation of Micro-service Platform Architecture: Parallel processing / auto-scaling with latest cloud technology stack

Operating Global Servers with AWS + Azure Data Pipeline and Analysis Tools: Real-time storage of massive-scale game data

Mobile CPU & GPU Optimization

Character Multi-part Mesh Runtime Merging: Parallel processing of character details to optimize CPU load

Parallel Processing of Movement Logics for multiple characters to optimize CPU load

Optimized Physical Processing: Enabling detailed physical processing on mobile devices (e.g. destroy effect for windows)

Optimized Operation Sensitivity: Minimized input delay on touchscreen

Optimized Heat Control for Mobile Devices: Real-time monitoring and optimization of CPU load

Network Sync. / Optimization

Network Replication Graph: Rapid synchronization with the calculation of update frequency per object characteristics, broadcasting of correlations, and scaling

Synchronization and Storage Method for Real-time Packet Delay: Movement, physics, and ballistic trajectory calculation

Network Packet Compression Algorithm

Encryption of Security Packet

Anti-Cheat

Implementation of Multi-factor Anti-Cheat Technology for Detection / Prevention of System Abusers

- Anti-cheat based on code encryption
- Detection of hack tools based on pattern analysis
- Real-time detection based on log analysis and AI
